Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No. Rev 65 dated 11th July 1896 forwarding for report, Petition No. 4106 dated 21st June 1896 from Ringappa and his father Khandappa of Karanhalli, Arsikere Taluk, appealing against the order of the Deputy Commissioner No. 1276 dated 22nd April 1896, regarding the Shanbhogi of Neerganda Pirka, Arsikere Taluk, I have the honour to report as follows:—

2. Paper No. 30 in the file shows that one Thimmappaya, who was Shanbhoge of the Neerganda Pirka, claimed exemption enjoyment of certain Government lands and that that on the complaint of his brother Giriyappa, the then Amildar reported that he had ordered the said Thimmappaiya to produce some records, but he absconded dropping a petition to the effect that as he was absent in Benares on pilgrimage, his brother Giriyappa might be appointed in his place. Thereupon it was ordered in No 396 dated 27th October 1862, that Giriyappa might be appointed to act for the said Thimmappaiya.

3. Paper No 32 in the file shows that Giriyappa was charged of embezzlement and convicted and dismissed the service in or about the year 1880.

4. Paper No 36 in the file shows that Thimmappaiya urged his claims to the Shanbhogi which fell vacant on account of the dismissal of Giriyappa, and it was ordered in No 2230 dated 25th February 1880, that he could not be given the appointment as he had admitted in the Criminal case against Giriyappa, before the General Assistant Commissioner, that that he had been dismissed from the Shanbhagi on the complaint of Lingayits

5. Then one Subbanna appears to have been appointed, but he did not present himself for duty

6. On Ramanappayá further representation, his nephew one Ramanna, was appointed Shanbhoge by Colonel Hill in December 1880, as the innocence of Thimmappayya had not been made out. Ramanna resigned the appointment on 29th September 1881.

7. On 6th March 1882, Amildar Khader Ali of the Hassan Taluk recommended that Thimmappayya the dismissed Shanbhoge might be reappointed. This was not approved by the then Deputy Commissioner Mr. C. Krishna Murti, (Vide order No 864 dated 2nd August 1882. Copy No 34 in the file)

8. The several persons that acted for the Shanbhagi from 1862 to the end of December 1882 are mentioned in paper No 110.

9. As the Firka was subsequently transferred to the Arsikere Taluk the records were sent to that Amildar for report with the observation that it was necessary to give the appointment to a relative of the Shanbhoge and that the best and reliable man available may be selected

10. On 20th August 1883, Gouramma, wife of Thimmappaiya, petitioned the Sub Division Officer that her husband Thimmappaiya left the village some two months ago without telling any one, and that it was since reported that he had gone on pilgrimage, and as she was destitute she prayed that her adopted son Ananta Ramaiya might be registered as Shanbhoge, her nephew one Nanjappa being appointed his Gumasta.

11. The Amildar thereupon in his No. 728 dated 22nd August 1883 reported that the dismissed and convicted Shanbhoges Giriyappa and Thimmappaiya (who was reported to be be absent on pilgrimage), had no issue nor even near collateral heirs; that one kudumagudi Venkatramanaya nephew (sister's son) of the above and 3 other distant cousins offered themselves as candidates for the Shanbhogi; that the distant cousins would not leave their native places and reside in the Firka and that they could not therefore be nominated merely on the ground that they were cousins; that the nephew Venkatramaiya who was competent having knowledge of the accounts might be appointed temporarily as he promised to live in the Firka and tender a security of Rs 200/-.

12. The nomination of Venkatramayya was approved of by the Sub Division Officer Mr. T Ananda Rao on the 27th December 1883 subject to the condition that Venkatramayya should find a residence at Neerguda at once. Mr. Ananda Rao further ordered that an endorsement should be given to Thimmappaiya informing him of the above to give him an opportunity of appealing against the order, if he was dissatisfied with it. Thimmappaiya thereupon

thereupon appealed to Government, who called for the Proceedings and gave an endorsement No 2391 dated 16th July 1885 to Thimmappaya rejecting his petition with the observation that his case was not deserving of any consideration and that his antecedents were against him and his renomination by the Amildar in 1880 was informal and temporary and was still under the consideration of the District authorities, when one morning Petitioner took into his head to hang up his duftar to a nail in his house and start off to Sonarca without leave obtained from the Amildar or previous intimation given to his superiors, whereas, he reappeared at the end of 6 months and claimed to have his Shanbhogi given back to him;
and that the claim was therefore dismissed

13. On 20th October 1885 the Amildar reported that Venkatramana (appointed by Sir Munro Rao on 27th December 1883) had not produced

produced proper security; that he had committed several irregularities in the discharge of his duties and that he troubled the ryots a good deal. He therefore recommended that he might be dismissed, one Ramakrishnayya being appointed in his stead. Mr. C. Srinivasiengar, the then acting Sub-Divisional Officer, suspending Venkatramaiyya pending disposal of the charges against him during the ensuing Jamabundi and approved of the nomination of Ramakrishnayya (Vide Orde. No 208 dated 7th November 1885; Paper No 91).

14. This Venkatramaiyya was subsequently charged of criminal breach of trust under sec 409 I. P. Cand was found guilty by the Sessions Judge, in Hassan Sessions Case No 6 of 1887, and sentenced to 3 years' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of 100 Rs.

15. On 6th January 1887, the Amildar reported pointed that Ramakrishnayya did not want the Shanbhogi and he therefore recommended that one Ranganna son of Khandappa, present appellant, a Kurubar for the Shanbhogi in question, was quite competent to discharge the duties and that he might therefore appointed. Mr T. Ananda Rao, the then Deputy Commissioner, referred the records to the General Assistant Commissioner with the following remark "Temporary arrangement might be approved; the whole matter required attention at the Jamabandi time. It was better to have no Shanbhogs than frequently changing temporary Shanbhogs. Some guarantee shall but certain and tangible should be had that the man (present appellant) would not throw up without notice of 6 months at least. If possible and necessary this Fifth might be added on to the charge of a neighbouring competent man

16. Mr K. Ramachandra Rao the then General

General Assistant Commissioner, accepted the resignation tendered by Ramakrishnayya and appointed Ranganna (appellant) temporarily. He directed the Amildar to produce Ranganna and the records at the ensuing Jamabandi together with the particulars of Jamabandi &c of the neighbouring Talukas.

17. When these were produced before Rao Ramachandra Rao, the matter was not finally disposed of by him, but he called for information as to who were the surviving sons of the late Giriyappa (Barawarddar Shanbhoge shown in the Barabaloti Register of 1867-68) and as to what they would say. He further directed the Amildar to take a Muchilika from Ranganna that he would not throw up the office without 6 months' previous notice. Ranganna accordingly executed a Muchalika on 16th September 1887.

18. On 20th July 1893 Goveramma wife of Thimmappaiya petitioned the Deputy Deputy Commissioner, that her husband died 3 or 4 years before and that one Ranganna was doing Shanbhogi duties as gumasta appointed by Government. She prayed that her adopted son Ananthia might be registered as Shanbhoge, one Bagade' Subraya being appointed his gumasta. The petition was referred to the Amildar for report. On receipt of the entire Proceedings connected with the Shanbhogi in question, Mr. Purnaiya in his No. 1435 dated 26th May 1895 (Paper No. 171 in the file) passed the following order— "It appears that the Shanbhogi of the Neerganda Pirka was a for a long time in the enjoyment of Gouramma's husband Thimmappaya and his uncle's son Giriyanna. The contending parties to the Shanbhogi viz Ranganna, Giriyanna Khandappa and others, though they belong to this family, are distant cousins. The Shanbhogi was not in their enjoyment nor was it in that Branch of their ancestors from whom they were descend descended. Though Ranganna has been doing the duties since 1887, Yet he is a man that was appointed temporarily. That Anantha Ranganna was adopted to Gauramma's husband is not admitted by the opposite side and therefore the nearest heir to the last male holder of the Shanbhogi viz Girijamma the dismissed Shanbhoge is Gauramma in whose name the registry must be made. After the fact of adoption is established and the same intimated, the Inamward may be transferred in that boy's name. Notice should be given to Gauramma to select a competent Gumasta out of her husband's cousins and his competency reported. If She fails to do so, a Gumasta should be nominated by Government. Gauramma might also be told that her personal relations could not be preferred to those of her husbands' cousins."

Notice was issued to Gauramma in terms of Hrs Purnaiya's order. She did not select her Gumasta from out of her husband's

Cousins

Commissioner directed but named her own man one Suryanarayappa.

20. Thereupon, Mr Krishnaswami Ayyar in his No 148 dated 2/7 July 1897, passed an order in the following terms:— "Rangamma who has been acting from 1887 without giving any room for complaint, should not be disturbed. She should continue to act as Gumasta. She should pay to Gauramma Rs 2½ which is one third of the Potgi. The boy's adoption must be established in a competent Court."

21. On 18th January 1898 Gauramma again petitioned the Deputy Commissioner that her man Suryanarayappa should be appointed her Gumasta whereupon the late Mr Krishnaswamiyyar ordered that he could not interfere with the orders already passed. If, however, the woman would produce a gumasta from among the cousins of her husband as decided by Mr Cumaraja, he had no objection to appoint him him.

22. Gouramma thereupon produced one Chikka Khandajpa alleging that he was a cousin of her husband. — Khandajpa and son Ranganna (appellants) urged that Chikka Khandajpa was not descended from their family and produced a genealogical table.

23. The late Mr Krishnaswami Aiyangar passed an order in the following terms on 17th April 1896 :-

"Mr Punnaiya's order not appealed against, and therefore final was that Gouramma should be registered and that she should select a Sanada from among the cousins of her deceased husband. Gouramma was then called upon to produce a Sanada but I refused to appoint him as he was not of the family of the deceased, and Ranganna had been discharging the duties satisfactorily.

Gouramma

Gauramma now produces a gumasta who is a cousin. Rangamma says that he is a distant cousin and only "Thri-nathri gnaty". He is still a cousin and fulfils the condition of being a "gnaty of her husband. There is no restriction in the former order as to nearness or distance. The parties are extremely contentious and would not come to any terms in spite of my best efforts to bring them to the same. Chikka Khan dappa named by Gauramma is accordingly appointed gumasta of Gauramma." This order is now under appeal.

24. The petition and its enclosures received with the official memo under reference, ~~are herewith acknowledged~~, together with the Vernacular papers papers connected with the case, ending with General Duty assistant Commissioner's Yadi No 112 Dated 27th August 1896, are herewith submitted for needful reference and obliging return.

(2) Letter No. 635 S, 7th May 97, from the Dy Comm's, Hassan &c reporting on the above and submitting the records of the case from which the facts are as follows

One Timmappaiya was the original Shanbhog of the Nerganda Firka and after him

after him his uncle's son Giriyappa was appointed as Shanbhog. About the year 1880 this Giriyappa was charged with embezzlement and convicted and dismissed the service.
A number of persons acted as Shanbhogs in succession to Giriyappa till at last in June 1887 one Ramakrishnaya who was then acting as Shanbhog resigned the office. Thereupon one Rangamma (the present Petr) a hyzedar of the Shanbhogs in question, was, at the re-commendation of the then Amildar, temporarily appointed to the office.

On 20th July 1893 Gowramma wife of Timmappaiya petitioned the Dy Comm^r praying that her adopted son Amrita Rayarma might be registered as Shanbhog

one and that one Bagade Subbaraya being appointed to do the duties as Gumasta. Thereupon Mr Purnaiya, the then Dy Comm ordered that the registry sh be made in the name of Gaura who was the next heir to the las male holder of the Shanbhog viz Giriamma, that the same may be transferred to the name of her adopted son Anantarayan when his adoption was established a the same intimated, that Gauramma should select competent Gumasta out of her husband's cousins and that in default a Gumasta should be nominated by Govt. But Gauramma hav failed to select a Gumas out of her husband's e the late Mr Krishnasami Iyengar ordered that Rang who had been acting since 1887 without giving any room for complaint should not be disturbed but should continue to act as Gumasta and pay to Gauramma one-third of the Poligi viz. Rs 21/- for her maintenance and that Ananta Rangama's adoption must be established in a civil court.

On a subsequent petition of Gauramma Mr. Krishnasami Iyengar so far modified his order as to allow Gauramma to nominate a Gumasta out of her husband's cousins
as decided by Mr. Purnaiya.
Gauramma produced one Chikka Khandappa and prayed for his nomination as Gumasta. On 22.4.96 the late Mr. Krishnasami Iyengar passed an order appointing Chikka Khandappa as Gumasta
